

HireCirca Website Brief

BRAND OVERVIEW

Brand Name: HireCirca

Founded by: Emilia Sam

Brand Colour: Purple (gradient, light to deep violet)

Secondary Colours: White, soft lavender, warm white

Tone: Premium. Confident. Human. Direct. No fluff.

Mission: To close the gap between skilled professionals and the opportunities they deserve through strategy, community and the right tools.

WHAT HIRECIRCA IS

HireCirca is not a job board. We do not find people jobs. We give skilled professionals the exact strategy, tools and community they need to find and land the right opportunities themselves, faster than they ever would alone.

Since 2023, Emilia Sam has been helping skilled professionals land remote and local roles through her community, her personal mentorship and her content. What started as answering DMs one by one became a structured system that has helped members land jobs, get interview invites, negotiate salaries and access opportunities they did not know existed.

HireCirca has two core offerings:

1. The HireCirca Community

A paid membership community for skilled professionals who are serious about landing their next role. Members get CV strategy, LinkedIn optimisation, interview preparation, daily job targeting guidance, access to curated opportunities and a group of serious professionals all working toward the same goal. Community fee is ~~£~~40,000, one time payment, lifetime access.

2. The Cold Email Playbook (Ebook)

293 industry-specific cold email templates for freelancers, virtual assistants, consultants, designers, coaches, writers, marketers and service providers. Includes overlooked industries to target, location guidance on cities and countries where demand is high, and access to a follow-up community. Priced at ~~£~~20,000, one time.

WEBSITE STRUCTURE

The feeling this section should give:

The moment someone lands on this page they should feel like they are exactly where they need to be. Like someone finally gets what they have been going through. Like something is about to change.

Hero Headline (large, bold, editorial):

“Congratulations.
You’re getting hired soon.”

Or a hand offering an employment opportunity.

Hero Subheadline:

The only thing standing between you and your next role is the right strategy. HireCirca exists to give you exactly that.

Hero CTA Buttons:

- Join the Community, ~~¥~~40,000
- Get the Cold Email Playbook, ~~¥~~20,000

Visual direction:

Clean, premium, white or very light background. Purple used only as an accent on buttons and highlights. Large editorial typography. The page should feel like a movement, like something is happening here and you want to be part of it.

Floating notification cards in the hero showing real results, including offer letters, interview invites, congratulations messages and first payment screenshots. These should feel like live proof that something is working.

Headline:

“This started in my DMs.”

Body text:

Since 2023, I have been helping skilled professionals land remote jobs. What started as answering the same questions over and over again in my DMs, including “How do I get a remote job?”, “Why is nobody responding to my applications?” and “What am I doing wrong?”, became HireCirca.

I built this because I kept seeing the same pattern. Skilled people. Real qualifications. Real experience. Getting overlooked, not because they were not good enough, but because nobody taught them how the hiring system actually works.

Nobody told them about ATS. Nobody told them about ghost jobs. Nobody taught them how to cold email their way into a conversation before a job was ever posted.

I have watched members go from months of rejection to offer letters in weeks. I have watched people who did not believe remote work was possible for them land roles with companies outside Nigeria. I have watched someone negotiate from $5 an hour to $8 an hour and get it.

This is not a motivational page. This is a strategy community. And it works.

Include:

- A professional photo of Emilia
 - A results ticker or strip showing real community wins, including jobs secured, interviews landed and offers received
 - A short “Meet Emilia” section with her background and why she built HireCirca

PAGE 3, OUR SERVICES

Section Headline:

“Two ways we help you get hired.”

SERVICE 1, THE HIRECIRCA COMMUNITY

Stop job hunting alone.

The HireCirca community is built for skilled professionals who are done applying blindly and ready to use a real strategy. When you join, you get:

- CV tailoring guidance so the ATS stops filtering you out
- LinkedIn optimisation so recruiters find you instead of you chasing them
- Interview preparation so you stop losing jobs at the final stage
- Daily job targeting guidance so you know exactly where and how to apply
- Access to curated opportunities in overlooked industries and locations
- A group of serious professionals all working toward the same goal

- Direct access to Emilia and the HireCirca team

Price: ₦15,000, one time payment, lifetime access.

CTA Button: Join the Community

SERVICE 2, THE COLD EMAIL PLAYBOOK

Your next client is one email away.

293 industry-specific cold email templates for freelancers, virtual assistants, consultants, designers, coaches, marketers and service providers who want to stop waiting for jobs to find them and start creating their own opportunities.

What is inside:

- 293 templates across 12 service categories and 15+ industries
- Overlooked industries with low competition and high hiring activity, including podcasting, wellness, senior care, HVAC, legal and construction
- Location guidance on the specific cities and countries where your skill is in demand right now
- A full 5-touch follow-up sequence
- Access to the HireCirca follow-up community
- Demo interview support

Price: ₦20,000, one time payment, lifetime access.

CTA Button: Get the Playbook

PAGE 4, RESULTS & SOCIAL PROOF

Section Headline:

“Real people. Real results. Real screenshots.”

Body:

These are not invented testimonials. These are screenshots from inside the HireCirca community, members who changed their approach and changed their outcome.

What to display here:

- Screenshot gallery, including WhatsApp messages showing job offers, interview invites, first paychecks, salary negotiations and offer letters. All real, all from community members.
- Two written testimonials:

Mutti, Kenya

“The sole reason I bought this was because I now have access to templates across different niches. If I move from Virtual Assistance to Customer Support tomorrow I don’t need another ebook.”

★★★★★

Mfon, Uyo, Nigeria

“I bagged my first interview two weeks after becoming more strategic with my outreach. This book completely changed how I approached cold emailing.”

Results counter strip:

- 9 jobs secured in May 2026
 - Members across Nigeria, Kenya and beyond
 - Roles landed in teaching, admin, tech, customer service and virtual assistance

PAGE 5, BOOK A ONE ON ONE SESSION

Section Headline:

“Want to talk to me directly?”

Body:

If you want to understand which HireCirca programme is right for you, get clarity on your job search strategy, or just need someone to look at what you are doing and tell you what to fix, book a one on one session with Emilia.

This is not a sales call. This is a working session. You will leave with clarity, direction and specific next steps.

CTA Button: Book a Session with Emilia

Include:

DESIGN DIRECTION FOR THE DESIGNER

Overall feel: Elite. Editorial. Premium. Like a career brand that has been around for years and knows exactly what it is doing. Think the visual quality of a high-end coaching brand meets the warmth of a community-first platform.

Typography: Large, confident headlines. Elegant but not stiff. Headlines should feel like magazine covers. Body text should be effortless to read.

Colour usage: White and warm white as the dominant background. Purple as the accent, on buttons, highlights, icons and key phrases only. Never use a full purple background section. The page should feel calm and trustworthy, with purple pulling attention to the most important elements.

Spacing: Generous but not excessive. Every section should breathe. No cramped layouts.

Animations: Subtle scroll-triggered fade-ins. Floating notification cards in the hero. Smooth hover effects on buttons and cards. Nothing excessive.

Mobile: Must be perfect on mobile. The majority of HireCirca's audience is accessing content on their phones.
